CHAPTER-I EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

(a) About the Industry:

Bangladesh is primarily an agrarian economy. Agriculture is the single largest producing sector of the economy since it comprises about 20% of the country's GDP and employing around 60% of the labor force. The performance of this sector has an impact on major macroeconomic objectives like employment generation, poverty alleviation, human resources development and food security. Hence utmost priority should be given to the proper development of this sector so that our nation can achieve total selfsufficiency in agricultural production. As our country is prone to natural calamities, measures should be taken so that progress of this sector is not halted. In addition to government support, the local firms must develop modern agricultural equipment, effective fertilizer distribution; pesticides and other crop protective items at a low cost so that it is accessible to the poor farmers. Currently, major emphasis is given on increasing the production of major crops like rice to make the country self-sufficient in producing staple food. There are renewal interests in growing other crops like wheat, maize etc. To help the farmer community government had recently come up with the idea of giving subsidies to the farmer in fertilizer. We feel that this sector has tremendous prosperity to grow further by providing all kinds of support to farmers through supplying high yield variety seeds, fertilizer and agricultural equipment including tractors, power tillers and harvesters and crop care products. Availability of all these facilities and products will enable farmers to increase their production yield thereby making them economically solvent as well as helping the country to save foreign currency spent on importing food grains.

Seed Production and Distribution in Bangladesh

Quality seed is the prime input to increased agricultural production. Quality seed alone can contribute to the increase of yield by 15-20 percent. At present, the quality seed for different crops is being provided from the public sector as per demand. Some seed-producing organizations and NGOs are implementing quality seed distribution activities of hybrid rice, maize and vegetables. Bangladesh Agricultural Development Corporation (BADC) produces foundation seeds from breeder seed of cereal crops in its 24 farms, jute seeds in 2 farms, vegetable seeds in 2 farms, potato seeds in 2 farms and pulse and oil seeds in 4 farms, 2 vegetable seed production farms and 111 contract growers' zone. Likewise, BADC produces and supplies different crop sampling, graft and goodies through 9 Horticulture Development Centers and 14 Argo Service Centers. At the present number of farmers are 3,98,327 under the 111 contract grower's zones throughout the country and the area of land is 7,41,640.00 (42 acre). Taking into account the demand for quality seeds in Bangladesh, the target of seeds distribution to the farmers set by BADC was 1.40 lakh MT. in FY2018-19. Seed production and distribution by BADC in the FY2016-17 to FY2018-19 are;

Fertilizer Uses in Bangladesh

Fertilizer's expansion of modern agricultural farming practices like the use of High Yielding Variety (HYV) together with intensified cultivation is needed to ensure food for all, which leads to an increased demand for fertilizers. Therefore, it is necessary to ensure the timely supply of both organic and chemical fertilizers to meet the nutritional demand of these varieties. The use of chemical fertilizers is increasing with the increased demand for food production in the country. The use of fertilizer alone is the highest in the agriculture of the country. In FY2017-18, the total quantity of fertilizer used was 50.93lakh MT. In FY2018-19, the total quantity of fertilizer is used at around 55.75 lakh MT. The year-wise use of fertilizers during the period from FY2011-12to FY2018-19 is shown in Table:

CONSUMER PRODUCT INDUSTRY BANGLADESH

The consumer products industry is comprised of a variety of products, such as toiletries and other household items. The demand for consumer products in Bangladesh is mounting as the average standard of living is taking an upward turn. People now demand products that had minimal demand in the past such as household cleaning items and toiletries etc. This change in demand has encouraged the local firms to become specialized in producing toiletries and other consumer brands. Bangladesh's export potential is also growing fast. Along with the traditional products, which make the main export basket, non-traditional items are being added to it. Bangladesh is a tropical country infested with mosquitoes, flies, and other germ-carrying insects and bacteria which are hazardous to health. The demand for healthy living has stimulated the production of insect and germ killers such as mosquito coils, aerosols, antiseptic solutions etc. Bangladesh is one of the most densely populated countries in the world. Over 80% of the country's population lives in rural areas, but recent trends show that more and more people are migrating to urban areas; as a result, the demands for nontraditional food items and other household products are increasing as the purchasing power of the people are augmenting. Hence the demand for consumer products will be strengthening further in the future and leaves a lucrative scope for the local industries to fill the gap between demand and supply.

Agriculture is the single largest producing sector of the economy since it comprises about 20% of the country's GDP and employing around 60% of the labor force. The performance of this sector has an impact on major macroeconomic objectives like employment generation, poverty alleviation, human resources development and food security. Hence utmost priority should be given to the proper development of this sector so that our nation can achieve total selfsufficiency in agricultural production. As our country is prone to natural calamities, measures should be taken so that progress of this sector is not halted. In addition to government support, the local firms must develop modern agricultural equipment, effective fertilizer distribution; pesticides and other crop protective items at a low cost so that it is accessible to the poor farmers. Currently, major emphasis is given on increasing the production of major crops like rice to make the country self-sufficient in producing staple food. There are renewal interests in growing other crops like wheat, maize etc. To help the farmer community government had recently come up with the idea of giving subsidies to the farmer in fertilizer. We feel that this sector has tremendous prosperity to grow further by providing all kinds of support to farmers through supplying high yield variety seeds, fertilizer and agricultural equipment including tractors, power tillers and harvesters and crop care products. Availability of all these facilities and products will enable farmers to increase their production yield thereby making them economically solvent as well as helping the country to save foreign currency spent on importing food grains.

Seed Production and Distribution in Bangladesh

Quality seed is the prime input to increased agricultural production. Quality seed alone can contribute to the increase of yield by 15-20 percent. At present, a quality seed for different crops is being provided from the public sector as per demand. A number of seed-producing organizations and NGOs are implementing quality seed distribution activities of hybrid rice, maize and vegetables. Bangladesh Agricultural Development Corporation (BADC)produces foundation seeds from breeder seed of cereal crops in its 24farms, jute seeds in 2 farms, vegetable seeds in 2 farms, potato seeds in 2 farms and pulse and oilseeds in 4farms,2 vegetable seed production farms and 111 contract growers' zone. Likewise, BADC produces and supplies different crop sampling, graft and goodies through 9 Horticulture Development Centers and 14 Argo Service Centers. At the present number of farmers are 3,98,327 under the 111 contract grower's zones throughout the country and the area of land is 7,41,640. 42acre.Taking into account the demand for quality seeds in Bangladesh, the target of seeds distribution to the farmers set by BADC was 1.40lakh MT.in FY2018-19. Seed production and distribution by BADC in the FY2016-17 to FY2018-19 are

Fertilizer Uses in Bangladesh

Fertilizers expansion of modern agricultural farming practices like the use of High Yielding Variety (HYV) together with intensified cultivation is needed to ensure food for all, which leads to an increased demand for fertilizers. Therefore, it is necessary to ensure the timely supply of both organic and chemical fertilizers to meet the nutritional demands of these varieties. The use of chemical fertilizers is increasing with the increased demand for food production in the country. The use of fertilizer alone is the highest in the agriculture of the country. In FY2017-18, the total quantity of fertilizer used was 50.93 lakh MT. In FY2018-19, the total quantity of fertilizer is used at around 55.75 lakh MT. The year-wise use of fertilizers during the period from FY 2011-12 to FY2018-19 is shown in Table:

Consumer Product Industry Bangladesh

The consumer products industry is comprised of a variety of products, such as toiletries and other household items. The demand for consumer products in Bangladesh is mounting as the average standard of living is taking an upward turn. People now demand products that had minimal demand in the past such as household cleaning items and toiletries etc. This change in demand has encouraged local firms to become specialized in producing toiletries and other consumer brands. Bangladesh's export potential is also growing fast. Along with the traditional products, which make the main export basket, non-traditional items are being added to it. Bangladesh is a tropical country infested with mosquitoes, flies, and other germ-carrying insects and bacteria which are hazardous to health. The demand for healthy living has stimulated the production of insect and germ killers such as mosquito coils, aerosols, antiseptic solutions etc. Bangladesh is one of the most densely populated countries in the world. Over 80% of the country's population lives in rural areas, but recent trends show that more and more people are migrating to urban areas; as a result, the demands for non-traditional food items and other household products are increasing as the purchasing power of the people is augmenting. Hence the demand for consumer products will be strengthening further in the future and leaves a lucrative scope for the local industries to fill the gap between demand and supply.

APL's Contribution to the Industry: Agribusiness (Fertilizer and Seed):

APL's Agribusiness is the largest integrator in the agricultural sector of Bangladesh. APL Agribusiness deals with crop protection, seeds and fertilizer. ACME Pesticides Limited (APL) is one of the largest fertilizers and seed manufacturers in Bangladesh. ACME Pesticides Limited (APL) is proud to be one of the private limited companies in Bangladesh to own a fertilizer and seed company. This unit is dealing mainly with microcontinent and foliar fertilizer with a focus on basic fertilizer. It launched micronutrient fertilizers like Zinc Sulphate, Magnesium Sulphate, Ammonium Sulphate, Boron, Sulphur 90% and Sulphate of Potash. They are being imported from China, U.S.A, Canada, Taiwan, Argentina, and Turkey etc. APL strives to provide farmers with high-quality fertilizers and seeds at very affordable prices. Bangladesh's population is increasing; there is a need to boost its food production and make the country self-sufficient and secure in the food supply. Agriculture is an essential part of the Bangladesh economy and livelihood. ACME Pesticides Limited (APL) is fully committed to nourish soils and enrich lives nationally. APL will continue to invest in innovative production processes, product quality, and environmental stewardship.

Crop Care:

Crop care & Public health is dealing with all type of crop protection items. It is providing a complete range of cost-effective products that can provide appropriate solutions for the farmers through insecticides, herbicides, and fungicides etc.

Consumer Brands:

This business segment has three major categories of product range- home care, air care and hygiene care. APL Coils enjoys a very predominant position and striving to become an absolute leader in the marketplace. APL has also very attractive products in the Air Care category. APL has another very strong range of products in its Hygiene Product category. Products like Family Protection Soap, Toilet Cleaner, and Floor Cleaner are also under this category.

Agri-business Environment in Bangladesh:

Bangladesh is primarily an agrarian economy. Agriculture is the single largest producing sector of the economy since it comprises about 30% of the country's GDP and employing around 60% of the labor force. Business Environment for Consumer Product:

The consumer product business is comprised of a variety of products, such as toiletries and cosmetics, ready-made edible products, consumer durables, consumer electronics, and other household items. The demand for consumer products in Bangladesh is mounting as the average standard of living is taking an upward turn. People now demand products that had minimal demand in the past such as household cleaning items, pre-packed food products, cosmetics and toiletries etc. This change in demand has encouraged the local firms to become specialized in producing toiletries, readymade food items and other consumer brands. Bangladesh's export potential is also growing fast. Along with the traditional products, which make the main export basket, non-traditional items are being added to it. The country is now exporting many food items such as spices, frozen vegetables and other snack items. Bangladesh is a tropical country infested with mosquitoes, flies, and other germ-carrying insects and bacteria which are hazardous to health. The demand for healthy living has stimulated the production of insect and germ killers such as mosquito coils, aerosols, antiseptic solutions etc. Bangladesh is one of the most densely populated countries in the world. Demand and Supply Forecast:

According to the Ministry of Agriculture, Bangladesh has a yearly demand of approximately 5 million tons of fertilizer, where 2.7 million tons are urea and the rest are non-urea fertilizers. In FY16 the demand of urea fertilizer was 2.8 million tons while Bangladesh had produced 0.213 million tons. The demand was 2.7 million tons in FY15 while domestic production was 0.878 million tons. Bangladesh Chemical Industries Corporation (BCIC) operates six urea fertilizers, one ammonium sulfate, and two DAP (Diammonium Phosphate) plants. Karnaphuli Fertilizer Company Limited (KAFCO), a joint venture between the government of Bangladesh and foreign companies, produces urea fertilizer and extra ammonia product for export. The total installed capacity of seven plants is 2.8957 million tons of urea and 1.8867 million tons of ammonia per year. The yearly capacity of the ammonium sulfate plant is 0.01 million tons (Quader, 2009). From the last two decades, fertilizer production in Bangladesh has been rapidly shrinking due to the poor maintenance, exodus of experienced people, lack of human planning and above all aging of plants and obsolete technology. Due to the capacity limitation of the existing warehouse, every year around 0.25 million tons of urea fertilizer is left in the open air, causing huge loss to the state coffer because of wastage and quality deterioration of a large amount of urea fertilizer. To minimize this wastage and maintain the quality of the vital agro-input the government of Bangladesh is going to set up 13 buffer warehouses for fertilizer across the country. Bangladesh's yearly consumption of fertilizers is extremely large by volume. In Bangladesh, chemical fertilizers had been used sharply after 1975. Since then, increasing trends of fertilizers were being observed. With the present demand for crops, the use of fertilizer has increased to yield more crops. In 2015-2016, the actual fertilizer consumption in Bangladesh was 2.64 million tons. Bangladesh Fertilizer consumption was 208.7 kilograms per hectare of arable land in 2013. The use of fertilizer increased every year but in decreasing rate where the change in consumption of fertilizer was 27.40 percent in 2011, 2.77 percent in 2012 and -25.16 percent in 2013. The change was higher only in 2011(27.40 percent) from 2010 (12.77 percent).

Chlorine, oxygen, sulfur, phosphorus, nitrogen, and bromine are the most common. Inert ingredients can be many substances, dependent on the type of pesticide. Liquid pesticides have traditionally used kerosene or some other petroleum distillate as a carrier, though water has recently begun to replace kerosene. active ingredients were once distilled from natural emulsifiers (such as soap) are also added to distribute the active ingredient evenly throughout the solvent.

A powder or dust pesticide will typically contain vegetable matter such as ground-up nut shells or corn cobs, clays such as diatomite or attapulgite or powdered minerals such as talc or calcium carbonate as a base. To cause the pesticide to adhere better to the plant or soil, a material such as cornstarch or flour may be added.

➤ When a new pesticide is first developed, it is manufactured on a small scale in a laboratory. If the substance proves viable, production begins in the factory. Batch or continuous manufacturing ensures a high volume, perhaps as much as 500 kilograms per cycle. Synthesizing a pesticide is a complex chemical procedure that requires trained chemists and a large, sophisticated laboratory. The basic procedure entails altering an organic molecule to form a pesticide. This may involve any of some specific reagents and catalysts and often must take place in a controlled climate (within a certain temperature range, for example). Once synthesized, the active ingredient is packaged and sent to a formulator. Liquid insecticides can be shipped in tank trucks or 200-liter drums. Transport of the active ingredient follows all regulations for hazardous materials transportation.

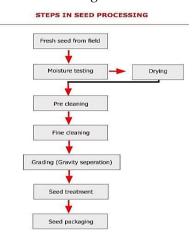

> Formulating the pesticide

- ➤ 3 The pesticide might be stored a short time before it is requested. When it is ready for transport, the estimated necessary amount is sent to the farmer, who dilutes the emulsified concentrate to create the amount of pesticide desired. In most instances, the final product consists of only 0.5 to 1 percent of the original active ingredient. The pesticide is now ready to be applied.
- > Information Memorandum of ACME Pesticide Limited
- > Applying the pesticide
- ➤ 4 There are several ways to apply a pesticide. The method with which Americans are most familiar is crop dusting, though its use is generally limited to large, flat areas. A plane loaded with 2000-liter (or larger) tanks flies over a field and sprays out the pesticide from booms. Booms are long, horizontal rods from which several sprinklers spray down. Another method is to attach the tanks and booms to a tractor and spray closer to the ground. For small farmers, the most economical method of spraying is to use one or more workers with handheld sprayers attached to small tanks. A hand pump can be carried on the shoulder; its tank capacity is only about 3 to 12 liters. Small tanks with a capacity of around 200 liters are also used. The pesticides are applied with a handgun. A rough estimate of the amount applied is 150 to 300 liters per hectare.

Quality Control

- ➤ Pesticides are by their very nature toxic substances; hence, a great deal of concern has centered on safety. The laws dealing with pesticide safety are very strict and will become even stricter in the future. Besides legal restrictions, pesticides are also subject to stringent quality control standards like any other manufactured product.
- Most large pesticide manufacturers have highly developed quality control laboratories that test each pesticide for potency, emulsification, density, color, pH, particle size (if dust), and suspension (if a liquid). If the company makes more than one pesticide, the product's identity must also be verified. A pesticide must be stable, easy to apply, and easy to store. Shelf-life must extend past one year. In accelerated tests, the pesticide is subjected to high temperatures for a short period, then checked for effectiveness. A typical pesticide is 95 percent pure. Labels must be easy to read and meet all regulations.
- ➤ Today's pesticides, when used properly, are very safe. Farmers who apply their pesticides must be trained by the Bangladesh Agricultural Development Corporation and certified by the state department of agriculture before they can purchase pesticides. Commercial applicators must also undergo training and pass a written test.
- When preparing a formulation for application, which in most cases means diluting it, the applicator should wear protective clothing as directed by the label. Often, this protective garb includes an apron or coveralls, a broadbrimmed hat, a long-sleeved shirt, long socks, unlined neoprene or rubber gloves, long pants, and unlined neoprene or rubber boots worn overshoes. For some pesticides, applicators must also wear goggles and/or a respirator.

- As an additional precaution, application equipment is calibrated before each use. To calibrate a sprayer, the applicator measures off a distance in the field then sprays it with a neutral substance such as water. The amount of water used is then checked to see if it is appropriate. All equipment is also checked to see if spraying is even, and worn equipment is replaced promptly.
- ➤ Byproducts/Waste
- ➤ When they were introduced, pesticides were seen as a wonderful technology that would increase crop yields and reduce insect-borne diseases. The first sign that this was a hopeful myth was the discovery in the 1950s that pesticide volume must be increased to have the same effect it once had. With the publication of Silent Spring by Rachel Carson in 1962, an awareness of the danger of unrestricted pesticide use grew.
- ➤ Pesticides kill the pests they are aiming for most of the time, yet often they also kill the pests' natural predators, thereby exacerbating the problem. In some cases, exterminating a pest merely allows another pest to take its place. After a period of pesticide use, the insects become resistant to the pesticide, and stronger or more pesticides must be used to control the population. There is evidence that pesticides are misused, that their effect in some cases is negligible, and that applicators are not aware of the proper use of pesticides. Coupled with these concerns is the worry over blanket spraying of residential areas and contaminated food.
- DDT is the most widely noted case of a pesticide that caused damage far from the farm. High levels of DDT have been found in birds of prey, causing them to become endangered because of the effect it has on their eggs. DDT becomes more concentrated the higher it climbs in the food chain, and many people have voiced their concern about its possible presence in humans. In 1972, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) announced a ban on almost all uses of DDT.
- Several dozen other pesticides have also been banned, or their use restricted by the EPA. Ironically, these pesticides are still being exported to assist developing countries, where it is estimated that three million acute cases of pesticide poisoning occur per year, along with 20,000 deaths directly related to the misuse of pesticides. Because many of these countries export produce to the United States, the possibility of American contamination is high.

- > Information Memorandum of ACME Pesticide Limited
- Integrated pest management (IPM) was begun in the 1960s in response to the pesticides dilemma. The idea behind IPM was to use a variety of insect controls instead of relying solely on chemical insecticides. The methods include introducing natural predators, parasites, and bacterial, viral, and fungal insecticides to the fields. Workers may simply vacuum up the insects, or introduce certain plants to ward off pests that attack a particular crop. Farmers may plow at the most effective time, plow their crop residue under, or strip harvest. They may plant pest-resistant plants. Sexual attractant traps may pull pests away from crops. Sterilized males can be released into the field. Insects can be engineered to remain juvenile and never reproduce, molt too rapidly and therefore die rapidly, or become too confused to locate crop foods. Other possibilities are being tested at present. It is possible that in the future pesticide use will diminish as research leads to ways to combat pests with more knowledge and planning and less reliance on chemical intervention.

2. Process Flow of Seed Production

Seed processing, conditioning and packing are vital operations for enhancing the seed quality and physical appearance. Seed treatment with chemicals protects the crop from insect pest damage and seed / soil-borne diseases for a specific period. The seed processing chain involves the following steps.

Export Obligation & Possibility:

APL doesn't have any export obligations and possibilities rather there is a good potential for expansion of export.

(b) SWOT Analysis

A SWOT analysis is a structured planning method that helps to evaluate the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats involved in a business venture. It identifies the internal and external factors that affect a business venture. Strength and Weakness are evaluated with internal factors whereas Opportunities and Threats are evaluated by external factors. Brief SWOT analysis of ACME Pesticides Limited is tabulated below:

STRENGTHS:

- 1. Low labor cost: Country-wide low labor cost has enabled us to compete with foreign competitors outside Bangladesh.
- 2. Experienced Management: ACME Pesticides Limited has experienced & skilled management in this line.
- 3. Modern Machinery: We have been using modern machinery that increases our productivity.
- 4. Quality Products: We have to maintain producing quality products that increase our sales volume over the year.
- 5. Reliability: Be the preferred business partner of the customer and suppliers by offering quality products; providing the best and timely service before and after the business transaction.
- 6. Strong Distribution Chanel: We have very strong distribution Channels through which we can smoothly supply our products.

WEAKNESSES:

- 1. Quality: The quality of raw material fluctuates
- 2. Cost evaluation: Inaccurate cost evaluations based on accounting for direct costs only such as material, labor and transportation, and ignoring other indirect cost-related factors such as site facilities, correction works, and equipment use often mislead cost calculation
- 3. Cost of fund: As the cost of funds for borrowing from banks is very high, profitability reduces. The situation worsens if imported raw materials are in stock for a long time.
- 4. Raw material sourcing: Since almost all of the raw materials used in production are purchased locally, the source of raw materials affects pricing very much. Often, the price of raw material depends on volume which in turn requires a large investment.
- 5. Pricing of product: Pricing of the final product can increase, as fabrication facilities require overhead for maintenance, equipment and utilities, and also due to higher transport cost and logistics primarily due to distance of dealer point from the factory.

OPPORTUNITIES:

- 1. Demand: The product demand is high and vibrant.
- 2. Diversification: the well-diversified segment of the business.
- 3. Government policy favoring the industry: Since Agro. The sector is one of the growing sectors in this country, so Government is fully devoted to extending its cooperation so that Agro. Sector industry can flourish over the years.
- 4. Reasonable Labor price: Our industry is Man-Machine Combined and reasonable labor price has a huge advantage for cost-minimizing that helps us a competitive edge over our competitors.

THREATS:

- 1. Customer's perception: New technologies developed by the competitor or market disruptor could be a serious threat to the agro. Industry to long term future
- 2. Competition: There is rivalry among the competitors to get the market share as maximum as possible.
- 3. Price: Volatility of raw material price.

If the issuer issued a share at a lower than the IPO offer price within one year, there have possibilities to arise misperception about IPO price.

Management perception:

It has the potential to grow in the future. The company does not have issued securities at lower than the IPO offer price within one year. The management of the company believes that our securities price will not be lower than the IPO offer price within one year.

hh) Refusal of application for public issue of any securities of the issuer or any of its subsidiaries or associates at any time by the Commission.

Any refusal of an application for public issue of any securities of the issuer may hinder the confidence of the Company or convey a negative impression about the financial status to the shareholders.

Management perception:

The Company did not apply in past any such application to Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission. So, no such refusal of public issue of securities through IPO has occurred in the past in this respect.

II. External risk factors may include among others

a) Interest Rate Risks:

Interest rate risk is the risk that the company faces due to unfavorable movement in the interest rates. Changes in the government's monetary policy, along with increased demand for loans/investments tend to increase the interest rates. Such rises in interest rates mostly affect companies having floating rate loans or companies investing in debt securities.

Management Perception:

The Management of the Company is always aware of the interest rate. If the interest rate increases the cost of the credit fund will increase. ACME Pesticides Limited has always been a cash-rich company and operates with low dependence on debt. As the company maintains a very low debt-equity ratio (0.12:1), the adverse impact of interest rate fluctuation is insignificant. Moreover, the company is confident of meeting its need for future expenses from its internal sources. In addition, the company emphasizes equity-based financing to reduce the dependence on bank borrowings. Therefore the management perceives that the fluctuation of interest rate would have little impact on the performance of the company.

b) Exchange Rate Risks:

Exchange rate risk occurs due to changes in exchange rates where a company is engaged in global trade as it receives pays in foreign currency. Therefore, fluctuations in the related foreign currency rates may affect adversely the Company's liquidity and profitability and expose a threat to the stability of the Company.

Management Perception:

The volatility of Taka against USD, GBP, and Euro and the recent trend of local currency devaluation may expose foreign currency risk. In such cases, the management of the company is confident to significantly cushion the foreign currency risk and price escalation risk through forwarding contracts if it is justifiable in terms of the cost-benefit analysis.

c) Industry Risks:

Market Demand Risk:

Market risk arises mainly due to a decrease in demand for the products which would harm the performance of the company. ACME Pesticides Limited, like other companies, may face strong competition which might take place even after taking the best quality control measures.

Management Perception:

The Company is aware of the continuing market situation of its production-related materials. The management of the Company believes that long-term planning for production-related material management, exploring the number of local markets, job-wise costing for its finished products and trustworthy relations with the suppliers could mitigate the risk of rising materials cost. Moreover, the company procures raw materials from various suppliers to get a competitive price advantage.

d) Economic and political risks:

Economic Risks:

The economy could be adversely affected by various factors such as political or regulatory action, including adverse changes in liberalization policies, social disturbances, terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war, natural calamities, commodity and energy prices and various other factors. Any significant changes may adversely affect our business and financials.

Management Perception:

Bangladesh's economy is booming for the last few years. Consistent industrial growth along with increased production has made the Per Capita Income higher than that of recent years. In addition, favorable government policies and industry-friendly policies by other regulatory bodies have proved to be very favorable for the instrument.

Political Risks:

The performance of the company may be affected by political and economic instability both in Bangladesh and worldwide. Any instance of political turmoil and disturbance in the country may adversely affect the economy in general.

Management Perception:

The company can prosper in a situation of political stability and a congenial business environment. Political turmoil and disturbance are bad for the economy and so also for this sector. This is why the management of the company is always concerned about the prevailing and upcoming further changes in the global or national policy and shall respond appropriately and timely to safeguard its interest.

e) Market and Technology-Related Risks:

Technology always plays a vital role in the existence of any industrial concern. The innovation of new and cost-effective technology may obsolete existing technology, which may cause a negative impact.

Management perception:

Management of ACME Pesticides Limited is aware of recent technological developments in the IT sector and keeps their employees up to date by providing necessary training. Further, ACME Pesticides Limited is marketing the latest technological equipment and is also well equipped with the latest technology.

f) Potential or existing government regulations;

The Company operates under Companies Act, 1994, Income Tax Ordinance, 1984, Income Tax Rules, 1984, Value Added Tax and Supplementary Duty Act, 2012, Value Added Tax and Supplementary Duty Rules, 2016, Customs Act, 1969 and other related regulations. Any abrupt changes in the policies made by the regulatory authorities may unfavorably affect the business of the Company.

Management perception:

Since the company operates in the Agribusiness sector; the Government regulations are mostly investment-friendly. However, unless any policy change may negatively and materially affect the industry as a whole, the business of the company is expected not to be affected. As it is an emerging sector, it is highly expected that the Government will not frustrate the growth of the industry with adverse policy measures.

g) Potential or existing changes in global or national policies;

Changes in the existing global or national policies can have either positive or negative impacts on the company. Any scarcity or price hike of raw materials due to changes in policy in the international market might hamper production and profitability. Furthermore, the performance of the company would also be hampered due to unavoidable circumstances both in Bangladesh and abroad like political turmoil. Since the risk involved with the potential changes in global or national policies is a macro factor, it is beyond the capability of APL to control.

Management Perception:

The management of APL is always concerned about the prevailing and upcoming future changes in the global or national policy and shall respond appropriately and timely to safeguard its interest. The strong brand equity of the company in the local market and profound knowledge of the sponsors will always endeavor to withstand unexpected changes or any such potential threats. Nevertheless, political stability and a congenial business environment is the best situation in which APL will achieve its maximum potential. Political turmoil and the disturbance are bad for the economy as a whole and also for the company. On the other hand, Government has special attention to the growth of the industry as it is related to the infrastructure development of the country.

h) Technical Risk:

Technical risks are those events or issues associated with the scope definition, research and development (R & D), design, construction, and operation definition that could affect the actual level of performance that specifies in the project mission need and performance requirements documents. Examples of technical risks include mew and changing technology and changing regulatory requirements.

i) Schedule Risk:

Schedule risk is the risk associated with the adequacy of the time allotted for the planning, R&D, facility design, construction, and startup operation. Two major elements of schedule risk are (1) the reasonableness and completeness of the schedule estimates for the planned activities and (2) the risk that schedule objectives will not be met because of a failure to manage technical risks. An example of risk in this category would be schedule delays resulting from the failure of the Department of Energy (DOE) to complete review and approvals of technical, safety, and management documents within the durations provided in the project schedule.

j) Cost Risk:

Cost risk is the risk associated with the ability of the project to achieve the planned life-cycle costs. Thus, it includes both design/construction and operating costs. Two major elements of cost risk are (1) the accuracy and completeness of the cost estimates for the planned activities and (2) the risk that cost performance will be affected adversely by a failure to manage technical risks. An example cost risk would have all proposals for a significant contract come in over the estimated budget for that item.

k) Funding Risk:

Project schedule targets may not be met because the projected funding needed delays caused by underfunding activities is not available when the need for increased fund. Thus, a complete risk assessment must include an evaluation of funding supply or budgetary risk. An example of this type of risk would be DOE's failure to provide adequate funding or a change in priority for the project from DOE or Congress.

a. Statutory clearances and approvals those are yet to be received by the issuer;

To smooth the running of the business operation statutory clearance is required.

Management Perception:

The company has collected all the statutory clearance and approval to operate the business. The necessary update and renewal is a continuous process. Hence, there is a limited degree of such risk associated with the company.

b. The competitive condition of the business;

APL's mission is to enrich the quality of people through responsible application of knowledge, skills and technology. It is committed to the pursuit of excellence through world-class products, innovative processes and empowered employees, to provide the highest level of satisfaction to its customers. It has been successful in accomplishing a strong market position in most of its product categories by catering to the needs of the customers. APL has been competing in the market with the industry giants and even with world-renowned multinationals, and yet has been thriving strongly in the market.

Management Perception:

Bangladesh is the key source of economic labor in the world, gaining proportionally advantages for its industries over their global competitors. Other overhead costs are also low in Bangladesh. As a result, the company has been able to maintain the cost of products most competitive. Moreover, over the last few years, the company has built a trustworthy relationship with its customers, which helps the company avoid competition with others.

c. Complementary and supplementary products or services which may have an impact on the business of the issuer.

Complementary and supplementary products may have an impact on the sale of the existing product of the Company.

Management Perception:

The company has not faced any challenges relating to supplementary and complementary products and management are concerned with the issue. In the future, if necessary, management may diversify the product to be competitive over the competitors.

Valuation of Inventory

As at 30 September 2020, The reported amount of inventory is Tk. 35,66,52,648 held in plants, warehouses.

On the reporting date, inventories are carried at the lower of cost and net realizable value. As such, the companies apply judgment in determining the appropriate values of Inventory in accordance with International Accounting Standards.

Considering the risk as stated above the valuation of Inventory is a key audit matter to the Financial Statements.

We verified the appropriateness of management's assumptions applied in calculating the value of the inventory as per International Accounting Standard (IAS) by:

- Evaluating the design and implementation of key inventory controls operating across the factory, warehouse.
- ➤ Attending inventory counts and reconciling the count results to the inventory listing to test the accuracy of data.
- ➤ Along with inventory count we checked whether the inventories were maintained in good condition and maintaining all compliances.
- ➤ Reviewing the historical accuracy of inventory provisioning and the level of inventory write-offs during the year
- Doubtaining a detailed review with the subsequent sales to compare with the net realizable value.

Valuation of Property, Plant and Equipment

The carrying value of the PPE is Tk. 129,56,08,912 as at 30 September, 2020 which comprises Tk. 120,06,51,052 is freehold PPE, Tk. 9,41,40,339 is leasehold PPE and Tk..8,17,521 Intangible Assets.

The valuation of PPE was identified as a key audit matter due to the significance of this balance to the Financial Statements. The expenditures are classified as an asset if it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the entity and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

The useful lives of PPE items are based on management's estimates regarding the period over which an asset is expected to be available for use. The estimates of the useful life of the assets is a matter of judgments based on the experience of the entity with similar assets and also take into consideration the physical condition of the assets.

Our audit included the following procedures:

- We assessed whether the accounting policies in relation to the capitalization of expenditures are in compliance with IFRS and found them to be consistent.
- > We obtained a listing of capital expenditures incurred during the year and, on a sample basis, checked whether the items were procured during the year.
- ➤ We verified the invoices and L/C documents (if any) on a sample basis to segregate the capital and operating expenditure and found that the transactions are appropriately classified.
- ➤ We evaluated whether the useful lives determined and applied by the management were in line with the nature of assets, the physical condition of the assets and its uses.
- We checked whether the depreciation of PPE items was commenced from the date of ready to use and found the depreciation had been started accordingly.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information in the annual report other than the Financial Statements and our auditor's report thereon. The directors are responsible for the other information. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements and Internal Controls

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the Financial Statements in accordance with IFRSs, The Companies Act 1994, The Securities and Exchange Rules 1987 and other applicable laws and regulations and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of Financial Statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. The Companies Act, 1994 requires the management to ensure effective internal audit, internal control and risk management functions of the company. In preparing the Financial Statements, management is responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concerned and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the company or to cease operations or has no realistic alternative but to do so. Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Financial Statements. As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Financial Statements or, if such disclosers are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and event in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the company to express an opinion on the Financial Statements we are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the company audit. We are solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

In accordance with the Companies Act 1994, and The Securities and Exchange Rules 1987 and relevant notifications issued by Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission, we also report that:

- a) We have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit and made due verification thereof;

3.01 Accounting Convention and Basis

The Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards (IASs), International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs), the Companies Act, 1994 and other laws and regulations applicable in Bangladesh.

3.02 Property, Plant and Equipment

3.02.1 Recognition, Measurement and Disclosure

Property, plant and equipment except Land and Land development are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses if any. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable cost inward freight, duties and non-refundable taxes. Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items of property, plant and equipment. The Company recognizes in the carrying amount of an item of property, plant and equipment the cost of replacing part of such an item when that cost is incurred if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the item will flow to the entity and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other costs are recognized in the Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income as an expense as incurred. In accordance with the allowed alternative treatment of IAS 23 "Borrowing Cost", finance costs have been capitalized (if any) for qualifying assets.

3.02.2 Depreciation on Freehold Property, Plant and Equipment

Depreciation on Freehold Property, Plant and Equipment is computed using the reducing balance method so as to write off the assets over their expected useful life. After considering the useful life of assets as per IAS-16 Property, Plant & Equipment the annual depreciation rates applied under which is considered reasonable by the management. Depreciation rates are varying from 2.5% to 20%. Depreciation of an asset begins when it is available for use i.e. when it is in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the management. The cost and accumulated depreciation of depreciable assets retired or otherwise disposed of are eliminated from the assets and accumulated depreciation and any gain or loss on such disposal is reflected in operations for the period. No Depreciation is charged on Land & Land Development and Capital work-in-progress. The Depreciation rates are as follows:

| Category | Rate (%) |
|---------------------------------|----------|
| Land & Land Development | 0% |
| Building & Other Construction | 2.50% |
| Plant & Machinery | 10% |
| Generator | 10% |
| Fire Extinguisher | 10% |
| Furniture and Fixture | 10% |
| Office Equipment | 10% |
| Computer & Computer Accessories | 20% |
| Vehicle | 10% |

The Company used branded plant and machinery in its production process mainly Chinese, Korean and Taiwanese machineries in addition with local accessories. The rate of depreciation of machineries depends on wear and tear which in turn depends on the manufacturer and quality of machine. The expected working lives of the machines are expected to be at least 10 years and the working life can be extended by regular maintenance. Therefore, we applied 10% depreciation for machineries. On the other hand, as per BNBC code factory buildings should be designed and built for service life of at least 40 years. The Company had followed all the rules and regulations of BNBC code during the design phase of factory buildings and maintained strict quality control during construction phase. Therefore, service life of the factory buildings considered 40 years and depreciation was applied at the rate of 2.5% justifiably. Other Fixed Asset's life time is considered 10 years which is very reasonable.

Depreciation on Freehold Land and Land Development

Total areas of the land of the Company is 1340.94 decimals. To make the purchased low lands usable for establishing factory for production, the Company has to develop the land by filling sand, earth work, demolition of existing structures, sand piling to improve bearing capacity of the land for future building construction etc. The land (excluding the area of land for the existing factory building and other constructions) is now ready for making roads and for making necessary structures for further expansion. There are some lands that need further development. Since, there is no physical construction (i.e. buildings, roads, drains etc.) over those lands (i.e excluding the existing factory building). Therefore, the Company did not charge any depreciation on the value of land development.

3.02.3 Depreciation on Right of Use Property, Plant and Equipment

Depreciation on Right of Use Property, Plant and Equipment is computed using the reducing balance method so as to write off the assets over their expected useful life. After considering the useful life of assets as per IAS-16 Property, Plant & Equipment the annual depreciation rates applied under which is considered reasonable by the management. Depreciation rates of assets are 10%. Depreciation of an asset begins when it is available for use i.e. when it is in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the management. The cost and accumulated depreciation of depreciable assets retired or otherwise disposed of are eliminated from the assets and accumulated depreciation and any gain or loss on such disposal is reflected in operations for the period.

| Category | Rate (%) |
|-------------------|----------|
| Plant & Machinery | 10% |
| Generator | 10% |
| Vehicle | 10% |

The Company used branded plant and machinery in its production process mainly Chinese, Korean and Taiwanese machineries in addition with local machineries. The rate of depreciation of machineries depends on wear and tear which in turn depends on the manufacturer and quality of machine. The expected working lives of the machines are expected to be at least 10 years and the working life can be extended by regular maintenance. Therefore, we applied 10% depreciation for machineries. Other Fixed Asset's life time is considered 10 years which is very reasonable.

determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognized as gain or loss from disposal of asset under other income in the statement of comprehensive income. However, no such disposal of Property, Plant and Equipment was made during the period ended on September 30, 2020.

3.02.4 Maintenance Activities

3.02.5 Subsequent Costs

The cost of replacing part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognized in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the company and its cost can be measured reliably. The costs of the day-to-day servicing of property, plant and equipment are recognized in the profit and loss account as incurred.

3.02.6 Revaluation of Property, Plant & Equipment

As per IAS16: Property, Plant and Equipment paragraph 34, "the frequency of revaluations depends upon the changes in fair values of the items of property, plant and equipment being revalued. When the fair value of a revalued asset differs materially from its carrying amount, a further revaluation is required. Some items of property, plant and equipment experience significant and volatile changes in fair value, thus necessitating annual revaluation. Such frequent revaluations are unnecessary for items of property, plant and equipment with only insignificant changes in fair value. Instead, it may be necessary to revalue the item only every three or five years. However, no such revaluation of Property, Plant & Equipment was made as on the Balance Sheet date, i.e. September 30, 2020.

Recognition and measurement

Intangible assets that are acquired by the Company and have finite useful lives are measured at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment loss, if any. Intangible assets are recognised when all the conditions for recognition as per IAS 38: Intangible assets are met. The cost of an intangible asset comprises its purchase price, import duties and non-refundable taxes and any directly attributable cost of preparing the asset for its intended use.

As the capital work in process has not yet been finished and is not contributing to the production process to generate revenue, depreciation is not applied for capital work in process as per Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAPs- revenue and expense recognition principle).

3.05 Inventories

Inventories consisting of Raw Materials, Work in Progress, Finished Goods are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value as per IAS 2: Inventory. Where necessary, allowance is provided for damaged, obsolete and slow-moving items to adjust the carrying amount of inventories to the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

3.12 Financial Instruments

IFRS 9 sets out requirements for recognizing and measuring Financial Assets, Financial Liabilities and some contracts to buy or sell non-financial items. This standard replaces IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement. The details of new significant accounting policies and the nature and effect of the changes to previous accounting policies are set out below.

Classification and measurement of financial assets and financial liabilities

IFRS 9 largely retains the existing requirements in IAS 39 for the classification and measurement of financial liabilities. However, it eliminates the previous IAS 39 categories for financial assets of held to maturity, loans and receivables and available for sale. The adoption of IFRS 9 has not had a significant effect on the company's accounting policies related to financial liabilities. The impact of IFRS 9 on the classification and measurement of Financial Assets is set out below. Under IFRS 9, on initial recognition, a Financial Asset is classified as measured at: amortized cost; The Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVOCI)–debt investment; Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVOCI)–equity investment; or Fair Value through Profit or Loss (FVTPL). The classification of Financial Assets under IFRS 9 is generally based on the business model in which a Financial Asset is managed and its contractual cash flow characteristics. The derivatives embedded in contracts where the host is a financial asset in the scope of the standard are never separated. Instead, the hybrid Financial Instrument as a whole is assessed for classification.

Impairment of financial assets

IFRS 9 replaces the 'incurred loss' model in IAS 39 with an 'expected credit loss' (ECL) model. The new impairment model applies to Financial Assets measured at amortised cost, contract assets and debt investments at FVOCI, but not to investments in equity instruments. The Financial Assets at amortised cost consist of trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, and corporate debt securities. When determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating ECLs, the company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, based on the Company's historical experience and informed credit assessment and including forward-looking information. The company considers a financial asset to be in default when the debtor is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the company in full, without recourse by the company to actions such as realizing security (if any is held).

Measurement of Expected Credit Losses (ECL)

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the entity in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the company expects to receive). ECLs are discounted at the effective interest rate of the Financial Asset. At each reporting date, the company assesses whether financial assets carried at amortised cost are credit-impaired. A financial asset is 'credit-impaired' when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred. The Company expected that they have no credit losses on Trade & Other Receivables.

Presentation of Impairment

Loss allowances for Financial Assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets. For debt securities at FVOCI, the loss allowance is recognised in OCI, instead of reducing the carrying amount of the asset. Impairment losses related to trade receivables and others, including contract assets, are presented separately in the notes to the financial statement if any.

3.13 Impairment

i) Financial Assets

The Company recognizes loss allowances for Expected Credit Losses ECLs on:

- Financial Assets measured at amortised cost;
- Debt investments measured at FVOCI; and
- Contract assets.

Loss allowances for Financial Assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets. Except for the following, which are measured at 12-month ECLs?

- Debt securities that are determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date; and
- Other debt securities and bank balances for which credit risk (i.e. the risk of default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument) has not increased significantly since initial recognition.

When determining whether the credit risk of a Financial Asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating ECLs, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, based on the Company's historical experience and informed credit assessment and including forward-looking information.

ii) Non-Financial Assets

The carrying amounts of the Company's non-financial assets (other than inventories) are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated in order to determine the extent of impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to determine the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs. An impairment loss is recognized if the carrying amount of an asset or its CGU exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of an asset or CGU is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. The value in use is based on the estimated future cash flows, discounted to their present value using a pre- tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset or CGU. Impairment losses are recognized in profit or loss. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, if no impairment loss had been recognized. However, no such impairment was found in Financial Assets during the period for which the company needs to make provision for impairment.

6.00 Inventories

6.01 Valuation of Inventory and physical stocktaking

The management of the Company takes physical stocks periodically and valuation of stocks were made accordingly considering the wear and tear of the assets as follows:

- i) The valuation of closing inventory has been made on the basis of lower of cost and net realizable value as per IAS-2.
- ii) The management of the Company has conducted physical verification/stock taking of inventories on 30.09.2020

Inventories consisting of Raw Materials, Work in Process and Finished Goods are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value as per IAS 2: Inventory. Cost of inventories include expenditure incurred in acquiring the inventories, production or conversion costs and other costs incurred in bringing them to their existing location and condition. Cost of inventories is determined by using the weighted average cost formula. Where necessary, allowance is provided for damaged, obsolete and slow-moving items to adjust the carrying amount of inventories to the lower of cost and net realisable value as the board approve from time to time. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Impairment of Inventories

Impairment of inventory is made as and when inventory became obsolete or unusable or for slow moving items for which the management of the company is giving decisions from time to time. Based on sales cycle of slow moving items, the sales prices of the products may decreases over time. The management of the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its inventory (Balance Sheet Date) to determine whether there is any indication of impairment In accordance with IAS-2: 'Inventories'. When the sales price moves below the inventory cost prices, the loss on sales is recognized immediately in the Financial Statements. However, there was no indication of impairment of inventory during the year; and as such, no adjustment was given in the Financial Statements for impairment.

22.01 Revenue Recognition

In compliance with the requirements of IFRS-15 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers", an entity shall account for a contract with a customer only when all of the following criteria are met:

- a) The parties to the contract have approved the contract (in writing, orally or in accordance with other customary business practices) and are committed to perform their respective obligations;
- b) The entity can identify each party's right regarding the goods or services to be transferred;
- c) The entity can identify the payment terms for the goods or service to be transferred;
- d) The contract has commercial substance (i.e. the risk, timing or amount of the entity's future cash flows is expected to change as a result of the contract); and
- e) It is probable that the entity will collect the consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the goods or service that will be transferred to the customer.

Considering the five steps model, the Company recognizes revenue at the time of delivery when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good to a customer. Goods are considered as transferred when (or as) the customer obtains control of those goods. Revenue from sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable net of returns and allowances, trade discounts, rebates and Value Added Tax (VAT).
